

Choral Workshop

Dear Singer,

You are cordially invited to a Choral Workshop organised by St Albans Chamber Choir and funded by BBC Performing Arts Fund.

- Date – Sunday 11th July 2010
- Place – Marlborough School, Watling Street, St Albans, AL1 2QA
- Time – 10.30am for 11.00 – 5.30pm.
- Price – ABSOLUTELY FREE!
- Musical Director – Paul Spicer, renowned composer and choral conductor of The Finzi Singers, amongst other choirs, and specialist in English choral music (www.paulspicer.com).
- Repertoire for the day – includes Vaughan Williams – Valiant for Truth; Palestrina – Surge Illuminare Jerusalem; Tippett – Lilliburlero.
- Workshop timetable:-
 - 10.30 – 11.00am - coffee and registration
 - 11.00 – 1.00pm - Choral Session 1
 - 1.00 – 2.00 - Lunch Break (please bring your own)
 - 2.00 – 4.30 - Choral Session 2
 - 4.30 – 5.00 - Tea break (tea and biscuits will be provided)
 - 5.00 – 5.30 - Performance (please invite friends and family)
- Who is invited to the workshop?

As well as members of the Chamber Choir, the workshop is offering a top quality choral experience to members of the community. We would particularly like to encourage young people with a love of singing and a good sight-reading ability.
- What do I need to do?

Apply online at www.stalbanschamberchoir.org.uk
- When must the application be in by?

Numbers are limited, so you are advised to apply as early as possible, and certainly by the end of May. You will be contacted by mid June with confirmation of your application.

We look forward to you joining us for a challenging, fun and satisfying day of music making.

Yours Faithfully

Sue Penny